Hague, March 20, N. S.

THE Caſe of the Dutch Merchants at Coningsberg, of whom the King of Pruſſia has demanded 250000 Crowns, by way of Contribution towards maintaining and ſettling the Saltzburghers who have taken Refuge in his Territories, was Yeſterday laid before the Aſſembly of the States of the Province of Holland; the Members of which Aſſembly have reſolved to tranſmit it to their reſpective Towns for their Conſideration and Advice. The laſt Will of General Hompeſch was opened a few Days ago, and it appears that he has left the Bulk of his Eſtate to a Child of two Years old, who is the Son of a Niece of his married to Baron de Heide. The Death of the King of Poland was ſome Days ago notified to the States General by a Letter from the Primate of that Kingdom; and Yeſterday Morning the like Notification was made on the Part of the Elector of Saxony, by the Saxon Envoy reſiding here, who at the ſame Time deliver'd to their High Mightineſſes his new Credential Letters from that Prince. The Deputation expected from Zealand upon the Affair of Ter Veer and Fluſhing, conſiſting of ten Perſons, is expected here daily, Lodgings being already taken for them. Count Sinzendoff, the Emperour's Miniſter, had a Conference to Day with the Deputies of the States, upon the Differences between them and the King of Pruſſia. The States of Holland continue their Aſſembly, and it is thought will not ſeparate till after they have ſeen the Deputies expected from Zealand.
